Ask for directions in English

1. Ask the way

You look a little lost. Can I help?	Yes, please. How do I get to the Art Institute?
Where are you trying to go?	To Millennium Park.

Excuse me, how do I get to the Art Institute?	Excuse me, where's the train station?	Is there a pharmacy near here?
Which way is Millennium Park?

2. Check the directions

Go straight for two blocks, then turn right.	Two blocks, then right?
At the corner, cross the street. It's across from the park.	Sorry, more slowly, please.

Turn right at the corner.	At the light, cross the street.	It's on your left.
It's across from the park.	It's next to the bank.	So, straight, then right?
Could you say that again, more slowly?

3. Ask how far it is

It's about a five-minute walk.	Okay, that's not far.
Oh, that's too far to walk.	Can I take the train?

Is it far from here?	How long does it take to walk?	It's about a five-minute walk.
It's too far to walk.

4. Ask which train to take

Take the Red Line north, toward Howard.	And where do I get off?
Get off at Addison. It's about twenty minutes.	Thank you so much!

Which train do I take?	Where do I get off?	Do I need to change trains?
Thank you so much, have a nice day!
