English conversation at the doctor

1. Say what is wrong and since when

What brings you in today?	I have a sore throat and a cough.
How long have you had it?	For three days.

- I have a sore throat.
- I've had a cough for three days.
- It started on Monday.
- My back hurts. Right here.
- I feel dizzy.

2. Answer the doctor's questions

Do you have a fever?	No, but I feel tired.
Any allergies?	No, none.
Are you taking any medicine?	No, nothing.
Open your mouth and say ah.	Ahh.

- No, I don't have a fever.
- I'm allergic to nuts.
- I don't have any allergies.
- I don't take any medicine.
- It hurts when I swallow.

3. Listen to the advice

Get a lot of rest and drink warm water.	Okay. How many times a day?

- Twice a day, with food. Got it.
- So I should rest and drink a lot of water?
- Can I go to work tomorrow?
- When should I come back?

4. Ask about the advice

If you still feel bad in three days, come back.	Sorry, could you say that again?

- Sorry, could you say that again?
- Could you speak a little slower?
- What does that mean?
- How many times a day?
- Do I need to make another appointment?
