Ask for a haircut in English

1. Say what you want

What are we doing today?	Just a trim, please. Shorter on the sides.

Just a trim, please.	I'd like it shorter on the sides.	Just the ends, please.
Can you give me layers?	I'd like to keep my bangs.

2. Say how much to take off

How much do you want off? An inch? Or more?	About an inch, but not too short.
Do you part your hair on the left or the right?	On the left, please.

Take off about an inch.	Just a little, please. Not too short.	I part my hair on the left.
Yes, please wash it first.

3. Chat in the chair

Do you live around here?	Yes, I live a few blocks away.
What do you do for work?	I work in a hotel.

Yes, I live near here.	I've lived here for two years.	I work in a hotel.

4. Check the mirror

How's that?	It looks good. Can you take a little more off the left side?
That's twenty-eight dollars.	Here's thirty. Keep the change.

It looks good, thank you.	Can you take a little more off the left side?	How much is it?
Here's thirty. Keep the change.

Get a haircut with an AI chatbot: kotokin.com/learn/english/at-the-hair-salon