Interview questions and answers for freshers

1. Say the job you want and what you studied

Tell me about yourself.	I'm a recent graduate in marketing. For my final project, I made a social media plan for a local bakery. I'm looking for my first full-time job.
What did you study, and why?	I studied business. I like understanding why people buy things, and I enjoyed my marketing classes most.

2. Talk about a project or a part-time job

Tell me about your final-year project.	Three classmates and I built a budget app for students. I wrote the survey and tested the app with twenty people.
Have you done any volunteering or part-time work?	Yes. Last summer I worked in a shop, and on weekends I help at a food bank. I learned to be on time and to talk with all kinds of people.

3. Say why he should hire you

Why should we hire you without experience?	I learn fast, and I finish what I start. My bakery plan was ready a week before the deadline.
What's your biggest strength?	I'm organized. In group projects, I usually make the schedule, and we've never missed a deadline.
What's your biggest weakness?	I get nervous speaking in front of people. I joined a speaking club at university, and it's getting better.
Where do you see yourself in five years?	I'd like to know this job very well and be someone new people can ask for help.

4. Answer the salary question and ask your own

What salary are you expecting?	I'm flexible. Can you tell me the range for this role?
Do you have any questions for me?	Yes. What would my first month look like?
When can you start?	I can start the Monday after you tell me. I'm free right now.
