Clothes shopping conversation in English

1. Say what you are looking for

Hi! Are you looking for anything special?	Yes, something to wear to a wedding.
Just looking, or do you need help?	Just looking, thanks.

- I'm just looking, thanks.
- I'm looking for a dress for a wedding.
- Do you have anything in blue?
- I need something to wear to a party.

2. Ask for a size or a color

What size are you?	A medium, I think.
The fitting rooms are in the back.	Thanks. Can I try this on?

- Do you have this in a medium?
- Do you have it in black?
- Where's the fitting room?
- Can I try this on?

3. Say how it fits

How does it fit?	It's a little tight.
That color is great on you.	Really? Thank you.

- It's too tight.
- It's a little big on me.
- Do you have a size up?
- Do you have a smaller size?
- What do you think? Be honest.

4. Ask the price and decide

It's seventy-nine dollars.	Is there a discount?
You can return it within thirty days.	Do I need the receipt?

- How much is this?
- Is this on sale?
- Is there a discount?
- I'll take it.
- Can I return it if it doesn't fit?
- I need to think about it.

Go shopping with an AI chatbot: kotokin.com/learn/english/shopping-for-clothes