English for hotel concierge

1. Offer help and ask what he likes to eat

Hi! Do you have a minute? I want a good dinner tonight.	Of course. What kind of food do you like?

Good evening! How can I help you?	What kind of food do you like?	Is there anything you don't eat?

2. Recommend a restaurant he can eat at

Anything, but I don't eat seafood.	No problem. I recommend La Piazza, an Italian restaurant.
Is it far from the hotel?	No, it's close. I'll tell you how to get there.

I recommend an Italian restaurant called La Piazza.	They have pasta and steak, and the prices are fair.	It's very popular, so I'd book a table.

3. Book a table for two at eight

Can you book a table for two at eight?	Sure. A table for two at eight. What's the name, please?
Nick. Is eight too late?	No, it's fine. I'll call them now.

How many people, and for what time?	A table for two at eight. May I have your name?	You're all set. The table is under your name.

4. Tell him how to get there and whether he needs a taxi

How do I get there? Do I need a taxi?	It's ten minutes on foot. You don't need a taxi.
Can I get tickets for a show, too?	Yes, I can check for you. What day would you like?

It's ten minutes on foot.	Turn left at the front door, then go straight for two blocks.	Shall I call a taxi for you?
Do you need a ticket for the show tonight?	I'll ask the bell desk to bring your bags up.

5. Wish him a good evening

Great, thanks for your help!	My pleasure. Enjoy your dinner!

Enjoy your dinner!	Have a good evening. Call me if you need anything.
