English for nannies

1. Greet Linda and say hello to Lily

Hello, come in! I'm Linda, and this is my granddaughter Lily.	Hello! I'm the new nanny. Nice to meet you.
Lily says hi. She's a little shy. I have to leave in a few minutes.	That's okay. What time does she have a snack?

- Hello! I'm the new nanny. Nice to meet you.
- Hi, Lily! What a nice drawing!
- Thank you for having me.

2. Ask about the routine: snack, homework, screen time

Snack at four: an apple and some cheese.	Snack at four. An apple and cheese. Okay.
Then ten minutes of reading, and one cartoon. No more.	Ten minutes of reading, one cartoon. And dinner?

- What time does she have a snack?
- Does she have homework today?
- How much screen time can she have?
- What time is dinner?

3. Ask about allergies and who to call

Dinner is at six. Any other questions, dear?	Is she allergic to anything?
Peanuts. And no sweets before dinner.	No peanuts, no sweets before dinner. Who do I call?
Call me first. My number is on the fridge.	Your number is on the fridge. Okay, thank you.

- Is she allergic to anything?
- Are there any rules I should know?
- Who should I call if there's a problem?
- What number should I call in an emergency?

4. Tell Lily kindly that she cannot have sweets before dinner

Can I have a cookie? Please? Just one!	Not before dinner. How about an apple?

- Not before dinner, Lily. How about an apple?
- I'm sorry, no cookies right now.
- Let's draw something instead.
- Let's read a book together.

5. Tell Linda how the afternoon went

I'm back! How was the afternoon?	We had a great afternoon. She was very good.

- We had a great afternoon.
- She ate her snack and read for ten minutes.
- She was a little tired, but happy.
- Thank you. See you tomorrow!

Spend a first afternoon with an English-speaking family, an AI chatbot: kotokin.com/learn/english/english-for-nannies