Introduce yourself in class in English

Three examples of a self-introduction for a class

A first-year university student
Hi, everyone. My name is Dana, and I'm from Brazil. I'm a first-year student. I'm studying computer science. I chose this course because I want to read English articles more easily. In my free time, I like cooking and playing the guitar. I'm happy to be here. Nice to meet you all.

A working adult in an evening class
Good evening. I'm Marek, and I'm from Poland. I work in a warehouse during the day. I'm taking this course because I want a better job. I'm learning slowly, but I practice every night. One thing about me: I have a two-year-old at home, so I don't sleep much!

An exchange student
Hello, my name is Aiko. I'm an exchange student from Japan. I'm here for one semester, and I'm studying business. I'm taking this class to meet people and practice my English. I love hiking, so please tell me about good places near here. Thank you for listening.
