English conversation at the supermarket

1. Ask where something is

Hi there! Can I help you find anything?	Yes, where can I find the rice?
Rice is in aisle five, on your left.	Thanks. And where are the eggs?

Excuse me, where can I find the rice?	Where are the eggs?	Which aisle is the milk in?
Is the bread at the back?	Thanks, I'll find it.

2. Ask if it is in stock

Sorry, we're out of brown rice today.	Oh. When will you get more?
We have white rice, though. Same shelf.	That's fine. I'll take that one.

Do you have brown rice?	Is it out of stock, or somewhere else?	When will you get more?
That's fine. I'll take that one.

3. Ask about size and price

The small bag is three forty-nine.	Is the big bag cheaper?
The big one is better value.	Okay. I'll take the big one.

How much is this?	Do you have a bigger size?	Is the big bag cheaper?
Is this on sale?

4. Ask for the deli or the checkout

The deli is at the back, past the bread.	Great. Where do I pay?
Checkout is up front, by the doors.	Thank you for your help.

Where's the deli counter?	Half a pound of turkey, please.	A dozen eggs, please.
Where do I pay?	Do you have bags?

Go shopping with an AI chatbot: kotokin.com/learn/english/at-the-supermarket