Talk about food in English

1. Say what dish you brought

I brought arroz con pollo. It's a dish from my country.

I brought flan. It's a dessert from my country.

- I brought rice with chicken.
- It's a dish from my country.
- It's my grandmother's recipe.
- It's my favorite food.

2. Say what is in it and how it tastes

It has rice, chicken, carrots and peas. It tastes a little spicy.

It's made with eggs, milk and sugar. It's very sweet.

- It has rice, chicken and peas.
- It's made with milk and sugar.
- It tastes a little spicy.
- It's sweet and crispy.
- I can't eat pork. I'm allergic to nuts.

3. Say how you make it, step by step

First I cook the chicken with onion. Then I add the rice and water. I cook it for twenty minutes.

First I make caramel. Then I mix the eggs and the milk. After that I put it in the oven.

- First I cook the chicken with onion.
- Then I add the rice and some water.
- After that I cook it for twenty minutes.
- You chop, mix and put it in the oven.

4. Set Frank straight about one ingredient

No, not black pepper. I mean a small hot pepper.

No, it's not a cake. It's soft, like pudding.

- No, not black pepper. A small hot pepper.
- It's not a soup. It's a dessert.
- Try it! You'll like it.

5. Say yes to trading recipes

Sure, I'd love to trade recipes!

Yes! I can send you my recipe on Sunday.

- Sure, I'd love to trade recipes!
- I can send you the recipe.
- Thank you, I can't wait to try it.

Tell your favorite dish to an AI chatbot: kotokin.com/learn/english/talk-about-food