Talk about travel in English

1. Say where you are flying and why

I'm flying to Chicago for the weekend, to see my brother.

I'm going to Australia for a month. It's my first time there.

I'm flying to Lisbon to visit some friends.

It's a work trip. I'm going for three days.

I'm going home for my cousin's wedding.

It's my first flight in years!

2. Tell about the best trip you ever took

Last summer we drove to the coast. We stayed in a tiny house by the sea.

Two years ago I traveled around Japan with my sister, for three weeks.

The best part was the beach. We swam every morning.

The best part was the food. I ate ramen in a different city every day.

I went to Japan two years ago, with my sister.

We stayed in a small hotel in Kyoto.

We visited temples, and I ate ramen every day.

The best part was the food.

3. Tell about something that went wrong on a trip

We missed our bus, so we waited four hours.

The airline lost my suitcase, and I had to wait three days for it.

The airline lost my suitcase.

We missed the last train, so we slept at the station.

It rained for the whole week.

It was a disaster, but now it's a funny story.

4. Say where you want to go next

Next, I'd like to go to the mountains.

Someday I want to travel across South America by bus.

I'd like to go to Mexico someday.

I've never been to the beach in winter.

I want to see the northern lights.

Have you ever been to Italy?
