Travel English phrases

English phrases for every part of your trip

Five phrases that work everywhere

- Sorry, could you repeat that, please?
- How much is it?
- Card, please.
- What do you recommend?
- Thank you, have a nice day.

In a taxi

- Can you take me to Times Square, please?
- How long will it take?
- Right here is fine.
- Can I get a receipt, please?

At a restaurant

- Hi, a table for two, please.
- I'll have the cheeseburger, please.
- I'm allergic to peanuts.
- Can I have the check, please?

At a café

- Hi! Can I get a latte, please?
- A medium, iced, please.
- Can I get oat milk instead?
- I'll pay in cash.

At a flea market

- How much is this lamp?
- That's too expensive!
- How about forty?
- Okay, forty. Deal!

At a hotel

- Hi, I have a reservation.
- Here's my passport.
- Is breakfast included?
- What's the Wi-Fi password?

Asking the way

- Excuse me, how do I get to the Art Institute?
- Could you say that again, more slowly?
- How long does it take to walk?
- Where do I get off?

At the airport

- Hi, I'm flying to London.
- I have one bag to check.
- A window seat, please.
- What gate is it?

At immigration

- I'm visiting a friend.
- I'm staying for ten days.
- I'm staying at a hotel.
- Here's my hotel reservation.

Practice them with an AI chatbot at kotokin.com/learn/english/travel